STANTONBURY
International School

Friday 16th October 2020

Dear Stantonbury families

I would firstly like to take this opportunity to thank you again for your support, patience and understanding during this extremely challenging time.

We are delighted that a sufficient number of our teachers will return from self-isolation next week and, as a result, we will be able to safely teach all of our students on site from Tuesday 20 October,

As previously stated, the heart of every decision we make at Stantonbury International School, is the safety and wellbeing of our students and staff and the strategy that we have undertaken seems to have broken the chain of Covid-19 infection in our school community.

Finally, thank you again for your ongoing support and helping us to ensure that your child attends school on Tuesday 20 October at 8.40am. We really look forward to our school community being together again.

Best wishes
